In re: Nat'l Football League Players' Concussion Injury Litig., No. 12-md-2323-AB

Dear Judge Brody:

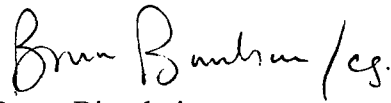

On behalf of the NFL Defendants, we write regarding the page limits for our forthcoming reply briefs, due on February 12. Your Honor previously denied our unopposed request for an additional 20 pages for each reply brief (40 additional pages total), but we respectfully request that Your Honor grant a more modest request for 15 additional pages total (across both briefs). We have cut our draft briefs substantially given Your Honor's prior ruling, but we feel strongly that these additional pages are necessary to enable us to adequately address all of the Opt Out Plaintiffs' arguments, including the arguments raised by the Seau Plaintiffs in their two separate ten-page briefs. Because the NFL Defendants are submitting two omnibus reply briefs responding to all opposition briefs, including of the Seaus, the current page limit affords the NFL

Defendants no extra pages in which to address the individual opt-out opposition briefs. We have spoken to Wendy Fleishman, coordinating counsel for the Opt Out Plaintiffs, and she has no objection to our request. We enclose a proposed order for Your Honor's consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
